

Alexander Djordjevic
2011-2012 Season Biography (Very Short Form)

Pianist Alexander Djordjevic is known for his “formidable talent and technique,” “profound poetic sensitivity” and “elegant, expressive, yet powerful and electrifying playing.” The Washington Post has declared him “a constant infusion of original insight.” “Djordjevic's mastery and commitment are never in doubt,” writes Gramophone Magazine.

The 2010 winner of the Hungarian Liszt Society's 35th Annual Franz Liszt International Grand Prix du Disque for his CD, Gray Clouds: Piano Music of Franz Liszt, Mr. Djordjevic follows an esteemed list of notable pianists who have received this honor for their Liszt recordings including Vladimir Horowitz, Claudio Arrau, Alfred Brendel and Andre Watts, among others.

As a Fulbright Scholar, Alexander Djordjevic furthered his piano studies with the Russian pianist and pedagogue Vitaly Margulis at the Hochschule für Musik in Freiburg, Germany. In addition to being named a Fulbright Scholar, Djordjevic was a prizewinner in numerous piano competitions and has won acclaim for his concerto and recital performances in the United States and Europe.
